

Refundable Credits Expanded in the Economic Recovery Act

The American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA), signed into law by President Barack Obama, expanded two refundable tax credits, the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) and Child Tax Credit (CTC), for two years, 2009 through 2010.

While most of the provisions in ARRA are intended to be temporary, President Obama has proposed making permanent these expansions of refundable tax credits for low-income families.

The table below shows how these expansions would affect taxpayers in different income groups if extended through 2011.
