

Everett Internships

Citizens for Tax Justice promotes tax policies that are friendly to low- and middle-income Americans. In recently years we have presented information to the media, lawmakers, and the public, illustrating the unfairness of President Bush's tax cuts for the wealthy and have fought for more progressive policies. CTJ has also led the fight to make profitable corporations pay their fair share of taxes.

We seek students who are interested in tax fairness to spend a summer at CTJ as Everett interns.

Our interns are directly involved with CTJ's research and outreach efforts. For more information about the Everett internship program, visit <http://www.everettinternships.org/>.

For more information about the type of work we do, visit CTJ's website, www.cjt.org, as well as the website of our research wing, ITEP, at www.itepnet.org.

Candidates should have strong writing, research, and computer skills.

Please submit a cover letter, 2 references and a brief (2 page) writing sample with your application by March 19.

Please email your application to Steve Wamhoff at swamhoff @ ctj.org.
